

I agree with our Attorney General, Steven Carter, that there should be NO contact by any of the banking agencies or other businesses for general information purposes of soliciting for future business dealings with their companies.